

DECLARATION COMANO URSUS EXTREME TRAIL

The undersigned _____ born in _____ residing in _____, of age according to the Italian law, in relation to the Comano Ursus Extreme Trail (CUET) event, for all inherent and consequent legal effects,

DECLARES

- to be properly informed about the technical characteristics of the race and to deem it appropriate to his/her current technical level; to be aware that the trail includes equipped and exposed stretches that require advanced mountaineering experience, albeit the organizing team and the National Alpine Rescue Corps will provide assistance;
- to have a skyrunning curriculum suitable for this race, having recently participated in similar events in terms of technical difficulty and psycho-physical commitment;
- and, in any case, to have proper mountaineering experience;
- to hold a valid medical fitness certificate for this type of races (stating its validity for the current year) – which competitors must attach to this document;
- to have been duly informed by the organizing team of the potential dangers that may occur during the event as this takes place in a potentially dangerous and unpredictable mountain environment; to assume any risk related to such potential dangers, knowing that a pre-race inspection of the race trail is highly recommended by the organizing team;
- to expressly exonerate the organizing team from any liability in relation to any accident involving the competitor/s during the race;
- to have been informed by the organizing team of the possibility of postponing, for technical and unquestionable reasons, the race and to give the organizing team the right to retain the paid registration fee for the postponed event.
